CALL FOR PAPERS

The University of Strasbourg, the Bureau d'Économie Théorique et Appliquée and the ERMEES research team are delighted to announce a one-day macroeconomics workshop to be held on Friday December 13, 2019 in Strasbourg.

The main purpose of this workshop is to produce high quality debates to learn from past experience and draw some perspectives for a better future in the Eurozone. We invite paper submission on various topics; both empirical and theoretical papers are welcome. Paper topics include:

- Monetary policy, optimal currency area
- Banking system, financial integration, financial stability
- Fiscal policy and public finance, fiscal federalism, fiscal discipline, Eurozone budget
- Policy mix
- Transmission channels of economic policy
- Internal and external imbalances
- Structural heterogeneities between EU or EMU member countries
- Convergence and growth issues
- Business cycle
- Labor markets and social cohesion

Participants are expected to prepare a 5 minutes discussion on another paper within the session. All presentations and discussions will be in English.

Keynote speaker: Antonio Afonso (Lisbon School of Economics and Management, University of Lisbon).
